CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN

O Lord, our great God, all holy, Father most gracious, filled with mercy and steadfast love, we are ashamed and embarrassed to come before you, for we have preferred the ways of this world to your ways. We have rebelled against your wisdom and have invited trouble, we have rejected your fatherly guidance and have gotten lost altogether. Incline your ear to our troubles, hear us as we pour out our sorrows to you. Forgive us, not because of our own righteousness, but because of your great mercy in the gift of your Son, Jesus Christ. It is in his name that we pray, for he is our Savior, and the mediator of the covenant of grace. Amen.

Sermon Notes

Title: “The State of Exaltation” by Rev. John Downs

Text: Psalm 110:1-7

Q. 28. Wherein consisteth Christ's exaltation?

A. Christ's exaltation consisteth in his rising again from the dead on the third day, in ascending up into heaven, in sitting at the right hand of God the Father, and in coming to judge the world at the last day.

Christ was exalted so we might be exalted with him.

I. Rising from the dead, raised to heaven

II. At the Father's side until judgement

Application – “But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves” (James 1:22).

Our responsibility, by God's grace and power, is to consistently apply the truths of God's Word that we have heard to our lives (Phil. 2:1-13; 1 Tim. 4:7-9; James 1:22-27). As you meditate on the sermon and this passage of Scripture, ask yourself these questions:

- Is there a command to obey?
- Is there an example to follow?
- Is there a promise to claim?
- Is there a sin to avoid?
- Is there a principle to follow?
